

along the Parkway. The overnight rental properties are typically cabin style houses located in developments off of the Parkway. These developments are extremely popular and will likely comprise the majority of the new developments on previously undeveloped land.

The Parkway itself is in a prime position for redevelopment of existing properties. These redevelopments would include large hotels and more activities for tourist to find entertainment. The two areas most likely to experience rapid growth are Teaster Lane, and the new Middle Creek Road area upon completion of the new four-lane highway.
